

Application for Conference Fee Waiver Leadership Collaborative 2009

For students who demonstrate financial need, financial assistance is available to cover the cost of conference registration ($175.00).

Applicants most likely to qualify for assistance are those who are eligible to receive Pell Grants.

If you feel you would qualify, please fill out the information below and return with your completed application. Should you be selected for the program, you will be notified at that time regarding whether or not we are able to meet your financial need.
